Greetings to Festivity!

I paused awhile to take on a personal inventory check in the context of joining Rotary Club in Kolkata from Bangalore. I am so glad that I kick-started my Rotary journey in Kolkata a couple of months back. The warm environment and encouragement from the members led to my induction as Editor to the Benevolent Newsletter and eventually becoming the Literacy Head. In the coming year, I am looking to dig much deeper to activate the responsibility bestowed upon me to more effective execution in the service of the Club.

As a Rotarian, I know new projects are in line for all of us, waiting to spring and accelerate our progress on the path to leadership. Dear members, let us all savor the pleasures of that journey, as we explore and embrace new possibilities.

Happy Reading

Greetings to Festivity!

It gives me immense pleasure to write again in this page. November 2021 is very special for Rotary Benevolence as we could launch A Sewing Machine Unit, as a permanent sustainable project under the Banner of UDAAN, in association with GBS and RIHAD. Under this Project we intend to empower the rural ladies of adjoining villages in Canning Area. This project caters to Rotary mission of Women Empowerment. In future, we intend to setup similar units at other locations.
